

WELCOME TO ENERGY SCIENCE AT UTRECHT UNIVERSITY

In just a few weeks, you will begin your Master's programme in Energy Science at Utrecht University. As the board of the NRG study association, we are excited to welcome you to the university!

NRG is the study association for all students part of the Energy Science master programme at Utrecht University. The association is student-run and helps build a community amongst students and supports you in taking your first career steps through fun and career-related events.

During the first week of your programme, starting September 1st, you'll dive into your first lectures. To help you get to know your fellow students and the city of Utrecht, we've organised a series of fun and interesting activities for you to enjoy alongside the lectures.
